TWO GREEDY BEAR CUBS

A Classic Folk Tale on Fair Sharing, Brotherly Trust, and Avoiding the Cunning Arbiter

✦ Foreword by Zinaida Jupiter, DBA ✦

Dear Reader—both Young and Grown-Up! Every classic fairy tale holds two golden keys: one for a child discovering the rules of kindness and courage, and one for parents building a warm, resilient family home.

How to Read This Book as a Family (3 Steps in 15 Minutes):
1. Pages 2–6: Read the five illustrated story sheets aloud and trace how each choice changes the heroes' path.
2. Pages 7–9: Discuss the Three Questions, play the interactive "Three Roads" game, and seal the Two Wise Vows.
3. Pages 10–12: Explore the Family Wisdom Matrix (where the winning answer always shines in the Top-Right Quadrant ★!) and the Parent's Guide.

🔑 The Golden Key of the Tale (What to Watch For)

"Where two brothers fight over a crumb, the cunning Fox eats the whole cheese."

Proverb of the Book: "Where two brothers fight over a crumb, the cunning Fox eats the whole cheese."

❧ Sheet I. The Sunny Forest Road and the Round Cheese Head ❧

Beyond the glassy brook in a fragrant pine forest lived two brother Bear Cubs. Setting out together to explore the wide world, they walked shoulder to shoulder until their tummies rumbled—and suddenly, right by the path, they found a large, round head of golden cheese!

They wanted to divide it fairly right away, yet a terrible worry seized them both: 'What if your half turns out a tiny crumb bigger than mine?'

❧ Sheet II. Quarrelling Over a Millimetre and the Fox's Arrival ❧

The two brothers growled and argued over the round cheese until their voices echoed through the woods. Hearing the noise, a sleek Fox trotted up with a sweet smile: 'Why are you shouting, young friends? Let me divide your cheese with absolute precision so neither brother is offended!'

Instead of yielding a single crumb to each other in brotherly love, the cubs gladly handed their whole treasure into the paws of the stranger.

❧ Sheet III. The 'Equalizer' Takes Bite After Bite ❧

The Fox broke the cheese head neatly in two—intentionally making one piece visibly larger than the other! The cubs cried out together: 'That piece is bigger!'

'Hush, my dears, we shall fix that right now!' purred the Fox, and took a huge bite out of the larger half—until the other half became the bigger one!

❧ Sheet IV. Chasing Imaginary Perfection Until Nothing Remains ❧

Hypnotized by the fear that the other brother might get a hair more, the Bear Cubs kept pointing at the bigger piece: 'Now THAT one is larger! Even them out!'

And the obliging Fox bit from the left piece, then from the right piece, then from the left again—until the Fox's belly was round and full, and only two tiny transparent crumbs remained in her paws!

❧ Sheet V. The Golden Rule of 'I Cut, You Choose' ❧

Handing the two microscopic crumbs to the stunned cubs, the Fox flicked her tail and laughed: 'Though small, they are now perfectly equal! Enjoy your meal, young gentlemen!'

Thus the tale teaches a lesson worth its weight in gold: envy between partners feeds only the third-party Fox, whereas a generous heart—or the simple rule 'One cuts, the other chooses'—keeps the whole cheese in the family!

“Where two brothers fight over a crumb, the cunning Fox eats the whole cheese.”

THE GOLDEN KEY TO THE TALE

Three Questions for a Warm Conversation with Your Child

✦ Why This Happens in Real Life ✦

"Where two brothers fight over a crumb, the cunning Fox eats the whole cheese."

1. Did the Bear Cubs find a small piece of cheese or a whole big head?

There was more than enough for both brothers to eat their fill! What fear stopped them from enjoying their treasure?

2. Why did the Cubs keep letting the Fox bite their cheese?

Why were they more afraid that their brother would get an extra gram than that a stranger was eating 95% of their dinner?

3. How can two siblings or friends divide any treat fairly in 10 seconds without a Fox?

What happens when one person cuts the pie and the other person gets to pick the first piece?

THE GAME OF “THREE ROADS”

Find the Wise Choice Together and Sketch Your Victory!

Imagine This Real-Life Situation:

You and your sibling or friend are given one big delicious pastry or sixty minutes on a shared game console.

1. Path 1 (Growling & Measuring With a Ruler): Argue for half an hour until dinner time is over and nobody gets to play or eat in peace.

2. Path 2 (Calling the Fox): Keep complaining and tattling until the treat or game is taken away completely.

3. ★ Path 3 — The Wise Choice (Brotherly Generosity & 'I Cut, You Choose'!): Either happily offer your brother the bigger half, or use the fair rule: 'I divide it into two, and you pick your favourite half first!'

❖ Creative Task: Draw the two smiling Bear Cubs sitting peacefully on a mossy log, sharing a huge golden cheese fairly with a cup of forest berry tea!

TWO WISE VOWS OF THE READER

Golden Habits Created by This Tale

✦ First Wise Vow ✦

“Rejoice when your brother or friend gets a generous share”

A crumb given to a loved one makes your bond stronger; a quarrel gives away the whole pie.

✦ Second Wise Vow ✦

“Use the rule 'One Divides, the Other Chooses'”

Settle every sharing question between yourselves in thirty seconds with warmth and fairness.

MAP OF THE FOUR PATHS

↑ PRESERVING THE FAMILY TREASURE →

Lesson II • Endless Measuring with a Ruler

Keeping the cheese at home, yet spoiling everyone's mood by counting every crumb.

★ WHOLE CHEESE & WARM BROTHERHOOD

We value each other more than a millimetre of cheese: we share generously or use 'I cut, you choose' in peace.

Lesson I • Two Crumbs Left After the Fox

Quarrelling out of envy until all time, joy, and treats are lost.

Lesson III • Silent Resentment

Yielding outwardly while keeping a secret notebook of grievances inside.

← Petty Envy ('Yours Is Bigger!') TRUST & GENEROSITY BETWEEN LOVED ONES Brotherly Care & Fair Agreement →

✦ How to Show Your Child the Map of Four Paths ✦

Point to the four squares together: when we drop either axis—losing either personal responsibility or warmth toward loved ones—we slip into one of the three traps. Only when both axes reach their peak do we enter the Top-Right Quadrant (★), where the whole family wins!

THREE RULES OF A WARM HOME

Psychological & Pedagogical Guide for Parents

Rule 1. The Classic Mechanism: 'One Cuts, the Other Chooses'

Introduce this self-enforcing rule for any shared cake, chore list, or toy time—it makes fairness automatic.

Rule 2. Never Reward Tattling Over Millimetres

When children run to adults over a tiny difference, remind them warmly of the Fox who 'evens out' the cheese.

Rule 3. Praise Generosity Above Calculation

Celebrate the moments when a child voluntarily offers the larger berry or first turn to a sibling.

✦ Why Fairy-Tale Metaphors Work Faster Than Lectures ✦

Direct scolding triggers defensiveness in a child's brain, whereas a shared fairy-tale image turns correction into a friendly smile: one warm reference to the story's heroes resolves tension in seconds!

EVERYDAY TRANSLATION TABLE FOR PARENTS

How to Replace Scolding with the Language of the Tale

| Everyday Moment | Common Trap (Quadrants 1–3) | ★ Wise Top-Right Response |
|---|---|---|
| Two children argue over whose glass has a drop more juice | Pour out both glasses in frustration. | Smile and ask: “Shall I play the Fox and drink both Down to two equal drops, or will you clink glasses like wise brothers?” |
| Siblings fight over splitting a shared dessert | Cut it yourself while they still complain. | Hand the plastic knife to Child A: “You divide it, and your brother chooses first!” |
| Friends waste half of recess arguing over game rules | Scold them. | “Every minute spent arguing is a bite the Fox takes out of your playtime—agree in 10 seconds and enjoy the whole cheese!” |
